

Executive Coach

Carrie Williams, MCC

Los Angeles, California

Carrie has over 15+ years of experience as a Master Certified Coach, consultant, facilitator, and speaker. She has worked with leaders and emerging leaders at dozens of top-ranked law firms, entertainment companies, and entrepreneurial ventures, including Activision, TikTok, EY, Disney, Amazon, and Microsoft, as well as numerous bar associations and legal conferences.

Carrie specializes in executive and leadership coaching and transition management. She helps leaders develop a powerful professional presence and a clear personal brand, maximize impact on the organization and its followers, and align values to increase buy-in and engagement. Carrie specifically focuses on helping her clients reduce stress, increase EQ (emotional intelligence), leverage their strengths, and create a lasting legacy they are proud of.

Carrie's approach is customizable, client-driven, and built on a solid foundation in evidence-based coaching techniques. She focuses on the three tiers of fulfillment in her coaching: professional success, personal growth, and overall well-being.

Education & Certifications

- BFA, Eastern New Mexico University
