

Senior Consultant and Executive Coach

Darren Jones

Atlanta, Georgia

Dr. Jones, a seasoned professional in coaching and consulting, specializes in cultivating strengths-based cultures and high-performing teams across diverse industries, including hypergrowth startups, hi-tech, nonprofits, transportation & logistics, retail, laboratory science, construction, utilities, financial services, oil & gas, government agencies, and higher education. With extensive coaching experience, he has supported over 10,000 leaders at all levels, demonstrating proficiency in driving organizational change and growth.

Beyond coaching, Dr. Jones has been instrumental in advancing diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging (DEIB) initiatives, contributing to developing inclusive environments and robust talent pipelines, showcasing his commitment to meaningful change through strategic support for organizational transformation. In his impactful public sector career, Dr. Jones has significantly improved retention, engagement, and productivity, contributing as a thought leader to strategic plans that resulted in double-digit increases in stakeholder satisfaction and engagement.

Education & Certifications

- BA, University of Virginia
- MA, George Washington University
- Ed.D., University of Georgia
- BCC - Board Certified Coach
- Certified in formal assessment tools including Hogan Assessment Systems and CliftonStrengths

What clients say about Darren

"Our facilitator Darren Jones is everything. He brings the room to life, asks amazing questions, and does everything with an amazing gentle, and thoughtful presence. I don't think it would be as impactful without him."

Highlights

PCC-ICF - Professional Certified Coach

Supported 500+ managers at a Hyper-growth startup through leadership coaching and facilitation

Completed dissertation on job satisfaction and organization of public sector employees

Amazing family of an awesome husband and a beautiful baby boy

Loves to dance and is a Certified Spin Instructor
