

Executive Coach

Kasia Jamroz, PCC, CPCC

Delray Beach, Florida

Kasia Jamroz, PCC, CPCC, is passionate about empowering leaders to thrive in the face of change. With years of experience as a business leader, executive coach, and facilitator, Kasia brings bold, adventurous energy to every interaction. She's known for creating environments where psychological safety meets accountability, enabling leaders to make intentional, impactful choices during transition.

Kasia's expertise in conscious change management and leadership development has led her to work with a diverse range of clients, helping them align their values with their goals. As Conscious Leadership Coach, Kasia has implemented programs rooted in Neuroscience of Change that drive measurable success, transforming organizations from the inside out.

Kasia serves as a Conscious Leadership Coach, overseeing leadership transformation initiatives and ensuring client satisfaction through personalized coaching experiences. She is committed to helping individuals and teams unlock the power of choice, fostering growth that is both intentional and sustainable.

Highlights

Conscious Leadership Coach, Personal and Organizational Transformation Architect, Trainer, Facilitator, and NeuroChange Solutions Certified Consultant

Over a decade of experience in human transformation, helping both leaders and individuals embrace change with confidence and clarity

Applying neuroscience of change-to-change mindsets to create new results

Professional Certified Coach (PCC) with the International Coaching Federation with Over 2500+ coaching hours

Run the highest marathon on Earth – the Mt. Everest Marathon

Education & Certifications

- Master's degree in special education, Specialization: Rehabilitation of Young Offenders
- Professional Certified Coach (PCC) with the International Coaching Federation
- NCSC - Certified Neurochange Solutions Consultant
- The Leadership Circle - Profile Certification
- Certified in formal assessment tools including the Hogan Leadership Series, Leadership Versatility 360 Index, MBTI

What clients say about Kasia

"Kasia has changed the way I view the world. By looking at me as a whole person, she has enabled me to understand what was holding me back from being my best self. She has given me actionable advice, reading and coaching that has made a huge difference in my work and personal life, leading to step changes in my career. She has delivered great results for me and I recommend her coaching to anyone." EVP, Chief Research & Development