

Executive Coach

Mala Nanda

Los Angeles, California

Mala is passionate about coaching executives to tap into their own authentic styles of leadership, to enable transformation and growth for themselves and the organizations they lead. Her clients appreciate her ability to help them find clarity in challenging situations. She builds trust with her clients quickly and holds them accountable for their commitments. With over thirty years of international experience as a senior executive, consultant and executive coach, Mala brings a global perspective to executive coaching.

Mala's corporate experience with Fortune 500 and privately held companies in the U.S. and abroad includes successful leadership roles in general management, marketing, manufacturing, customer service and supply chain. She has also been successful in working with local government, where she recently had impact on thousands of citizens when enabling Los Angeles County Department of Health Services to launch COVID testing rapidly at the beginning of the pandemic. She brings a unique multi-cultural understanding of effective leadership practices in diverse environments to her coaching practice.

Education & Certifications

- BA in Mathematics and Computer Science from Hood College
- MBA in Marketing and Organizational Behavior from Kellogg School of Management, Northwestern University
- Masters in Engineering Management from Robert McCormick School of Engineering, Northwestern University
- Certified in Hogan Leadership Series of Assessments

What clients say about Mala

"Strongly felt Mala was a great fit for me, and helped me explore my long-term career goals, strengths and passions in a deeper way than expected. She also had great feedback and did a great job of helping push me to find the answer/solution. Highly recommend her to anyone that asks!" Senior Vice president, Real Estate

Highlights

Fluent in English and Hindi; conversational in Bengali, Punjabi, and basic Mandarin

30 years in executive positions in Fortune 500, private equity, and government

Global work experience - lived and worked in three different countries

Legacy of developing promotable leaders

Served as chairman of the board for Tensar's Asia-based entities
