

Executive Coach

Mona Dine

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Leveraging over 20 years of experience, Mona successfully collaborates with leaders to accelerate their organizational impact and career trajectory. Mona effectively partners with her clients to take meaningful action to achieve their development goals and professional objectives.

Mona has worked with Executive to mid-level leaders within Fortune 500 companies and the public-sector across multiple segments and industries. In addition, Mona coaches high potentials participating in several Executive Education Development programs.

Mona is also an accomplished Human Resources executive with an extensive and proven track record of working with business leaders at all levels. Her expertise is utilized to develop high performing leaders, create engaging work environments, and promote talent practices that drive business results. Her experiences, business aptitude, and successes as a senior leader, certified coach, and talent strategist allow her to leverage insight and inspire achievement with her clients.

Education & Certifications

- BA Psychology/Organizational Psychology, University of Michigan
- MA Career Development, The Ohio State University
- Senior Professional in HR, Society for Human Resource Management
- Organizational Development Certified Professional, Institute of Organizational Development
- Diversity & Inclusion Certificate, Yale
- Certified in formal assessment tools including Hogan, StrengthsFinder, DiSC, MBTI, Harrison, Birkman and 360 feedback

What clients say about Mona

"Mona understands the business perspective so to have a coach who can maneuver both the balance of developing leadership skills with driving business results has been so essential and invaluable to my growth."

Vice President Human Resources, Healthcare Firm

"Mona is a truly effective coach who pushed me to find the answers within myself. She reawakened my self-belief and determination to lead me to a higher position. Mona has walked along side of me to achieve my career goals." Chief Operating Officer, Manufacturing Firm

Highlights

20 years' experience as a senior leader in global firms across multiple industries leading high performing teams

Subject Matter Expert for Career, Leadership and Talent Development; Diversity, Equity & Inclusion; Culture Management

Frequent speaker/panelist on diversity, inclusion, and belonging efforts. Board of Directors on National Diversity Council; Vibrant Pittsburgh, PA Women Work

Served as an Executive Human Resources, Diversity & Talent Management leader

Professional Certified Coach, International Coaching Federation