

Executive Coach

Rosanne Carcasole

Toronto, Ontario (Canada)

Highlights

Master Certified Coach (MCC), holding the highest credential awarded through the International Coaching Federation

Supporting leaders as an Executive and Leadership Coach for the past 17 years

Has coached hundreds of leaders in all areas including executive, finance, technical, operations, marketing, legal, and HR

Active member of the International Coaching Federation since 2014

Business background: senior marketing roles at a large corporation building Coppertone and Dr. Scholl's brands

Rosanne is a Master Certified Coach who is passionate about helping people unleash their greatness, so they can have the impact they want on their world. She leverages her coaching expertise and business experience to support executives and leaders to achieve better results, and to grow in a way that inspires the people around them.

Coaching for the past 17 years, Rosanne helps leaders identify their unique strengths so they can be leveraged at a higher level. She also helps them uncover and shift any beliefs and behaviors that may be compromising their true potential. Clients say Rosanne's style is supportive, results-focused, challenging, and impactful. All of this contributes to them elevating their performance to a higher level and transforming their ability to show up at their best more consistently.

Prior to coaching, Rosanne held senior-level marketing roles at a major corporation, leading teams and developing and implementing the strategies necessary to build businesses including the Coppertone and Dr. Scholl's brands.

Education & Certifications

- MBA from the Schulich School of Business
- B. Comm from the University of Toronto
- Master Certified Coach, International Coaching Federation
- CPCC - Certified Professional Co-Active Coach
- Certified in formal assessment tools including Hogan Assessment and Hogan 360, Leadership Circle Profile 360, Korn Ferry 360, and Certified Positive Intelligence Coach

What clients say about Rosanne

"With Rosanne's support, I've improved my abilities to strategize, influence and lead through others. Through our work together, these areas have become my greatest strengths. Rosanne is an amazing coach. Her style and technique were perfect for me...she's kind and supportive, as well as strong and powerful. I could not have achieved everything I have without her!" Vice President, Banking

"Working with Rosanne, I learned how to leverage my strengths of drive, courage, and authenticity. I also became self-aware around how my thinking and beliefs were sometimes impacting me showing up at my best. This helped me shift how I influence and communicate, regardless of the situation. I've come a long way! Rosanne was amazing as a coach. She really helped me to grow, and I've now got tools that will help me sustain my growth and continue to build on it." Vice President, Strategy