

Executive Coach

Karin Mayer, ACC, PMP

Fort Gratiot, Michigan

Karin is a leadership coach helping high-performing leaders in Consulting and Corporate navigate major career moves with confidence. With over 30 years of IT and Business experience—including as a Managing Director at Deloitte Consulting—she understands the complexities of leadership, especially in male-dominated environments.

Having built her career in high-pressure environments, she knows the unique challenges women face, from proving their leadership capabilities to balancing career growth with family aspirations. She helps leaders step into senior roles with confidence, navigate career shifts, balance ambition with personal priorities, and develop the leadership skills needed for long-term success —without sacrificing what matters most.

An ICF Associate Certified Coach (ACC), Karin provides tailored, results-driven coaching, helping clients gain clarity, confidence, and control. Known for her direct yet supportive approach, she challenges her clients to think bigger, step into their power, and take intentional action toward their goals.

Education & Certifications

- B.S. in Business Administration
- M.S. Computer Science Information Systems
- Expert Certified Health Coach
- Project Management Professional (PMP)

What clients say about Karin

"If you are looking for professional coaching, Karin is the best. Karin approaches coaching from many perspectives, allowing her past experiences to help her clients with understanding and grace. Her style of coaching pushes you, while also allowing you to work together on creating outcomes desired for you based on goals set together. With Karin's coaching, you feel supported and challenged to achieve your intended results." Supply Chain Director

Highlights

Former Deloitte Managing Director turned leadership coach, helping female leaders navigate career growth with confidence

Certified ICF Coach (ACC) empowering women to excel in male-dominated industries without sacrificing personal priorities

Expert in career transitions, leadership presence, and strategic advancement for high-performing professionals

Decades of experience coaching leaders to thrive in high-pressure environments and achieve their full potential

Beyond coaching, Karin is an adjunct Business Professor, preparing future leaders for success